What's New in the Screaming Frog SEO Spider?

Are you interested in software that is specifically created for getting the best results when it comes to SEO? Screaming Frog SEO Spider, developed by Illinois-based development company FrogWeb, is just that. It is a tool designed to analyze and optimize your website for search engine crawlers, and it is released with a free and a paid version. Although the free version is very functional, it does not provide you with all the features that the paid one does. In fact, it can be used to get a first overview of the subject of your choice, whereupon you will have to perform a deep research online, in order to obtain a more complete understanding and all the relevant info. As a result, you have to pay for the
