You can improve your English pronunciation even offline. Learn English pronunciation by listening to the pronunciation of words and repeating them. And you can make it even easier: download an application on your smartphone that will not only voice the words, but also show transcriptions (if it is not possible to listen to the phrase in audio, for example, in the subway or on the street). All phrases and words are voiced by native speakers. English is the most widely spoken language in the world. Over a billion people on Earth speak English. Of course, we all want to know English. But, according to statistics, about 60% of people do not even know the basics of English.
