I have not had much time to do much other than work on the blog and spend time with my family, and there has been a whole lot of both of those this past month! Hopefully as the weather gets warmer I'll have more time to relax and just kick back. Anyway... This post is all about a fun Summer snack that we've been eating lately. I made these recently and they have been getting raves from the fam and have been requested a few times. The best part is that they only take 3 ingredients (whew) and they are easy to make. I had a few things in the fridge
