An essay or other academic work submitted to a university level course, some other academic institution that awards degrees, or a professional school that awards a professional degree for work done away from home, such as the American Bar Association. Essays are usually the main component of the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Education degree programs, and are generally a large proportion of the course. Theses are the standard form of academic work undertaken by Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science graduates, usually in their final year of study. Public administration refers to the management of the public sector of any given country. This might include the government, the military, municipal, or state administration. The public sector includes many other civil servants. This book is very helpful for the students of the College Management admission test held by the Indian Association of School Management ( IASM ). The subjects taught in all the schools are included in this book. Official link
